

NEVER STOP LOVING YOU

© RYAN GUILLEY

Somewhere you are tonight,
As you will never have lost my sight,
Never ever having a fight,
We are meant, since we are right.

I'm never alone,
As I can hear your sweet tone,
A smile that illuminates,
Six years past, as we wait.

I will never stop loving you,
Who saved my life, who is true,
But nobody has a clue,
What I would do without you.
I need you, with your heart,
Holding on forever, never apart.
